Affidavit of Truth and Statement of Fact

1. I, Baroness Elaine of the House of Dawson (being the undersigned), do solemnly swear, declare, and depose:
2. That I am competent to state the matters herein and that I do take oath and swear that the matters herein are accurate, correct, honest, and true as contained within this Affidavit of Truth and Statement of Fact.
3. That I am herein stating the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, and that these truths stand as fact until another can provide the material, physical, and tangible evidence and substance to the contrary.
4. That I fully and completely comprehend that before any charges can be brought, it must be first proved, by presenting the material, physical, and tangible evidence and substance to support the facts, that the charges are valid and have substance that can be shown to have a foundation in fact.
5. That I have first-hand knowledge of the facts stated herein.
6. That all the facts stated herein are accurate, correct, honest, and true, and are admissible as material evidence, and that if I am called upon as a witness, that I will testify to their veracity.
7. That the eternal, unchanged principals of truth are as follows:
   a) All are equal and are free by natural descent.
   b) Truth is factual and not subjective to belief, which is nothing of any material, physical, or tangible substance in fact.
   c) An un-rebutted Affidavit stands as the truth and fact.
   d) An un-rebutted Affidavit is the documented fact and truth on and for the record.
   e) All matters must be expressed to be resolved.
   f) He who does not rebut the Affidavit agrees to it by default.
   g) He who does anything by another's hand is culpable for the actions of the other's hand.
   h) A security by way of a lien is, first and foremost, an agreement between the parties, as there is no disagreement between the parties.
